Excision of Skin Lesion

Introduction

We are reviewing patients who have been waiting a long time to help us prioritise those in most urgent need. Please be assured we are doing our utmost to ensure you and your families get the treatment you require as soon as possible. If you used the NHS e-Referral Service to book your appointment it will have given you an indicative appointment and treatment waiting time.

This document will provide you with information on how you can support yourself whilst waiting to attend the hospital. The guidance and advice has been reviewed and approved by clinicians responsible for your care.

Guidance for patients

If you no longer require your appointment please let us know as soon as possible as that will allow us time to offer an earlier appointment to another patient. If you do not have the phone number for the specialty you will be reviewed in but would like to cancel, change your appointment or speak to a staff member please call our switchboard number and they will be able to direct your call to the correct specialty.

Excision

This is a complete removal of a lump, mole or blemish. The skin will be repaired with stiches to leave a neat scar as possible. The piece of skin removed will be sent to a laboratory for confirmation of the diagnosis.

What should I do if my health is deteriorating?

If the symptoms related to your skin lesion are worsening – please see below for details of what to do.

If you develop an acute infection (redness, discharge, pain) of your lesion, then please see your GP for advice on acute management of this. If your symptoms relating to the skin lesion are worsening (enlargement of lesion, bleeding) then please contact the relevant secretary in the Dermatology department (see below). Details of your named Dermatology consultant will be on your correspondence from the hospital, but if you cannot find this please contact any of the Secretaries as they will be able to direct your query in the most appropriate way.
